What's New in the?

Markup Import and Markup Assist are available on the Review tab, on the Tools button, and on the Review tab's Import & Draw menu. (Video: 1:15 min.) Drafting table: Use the Drafting Table command on the Drafting tool bar to quickly set up a drawing to create a table. The command's icon has changed to a table. The same options as for table objects are available. AutoCAD LT 2019 is available now. If you have AutoCAD LT 2019 or AutoCAD LT 2020 installed, you can use Markup Assist or Markup Import. When you first start AutoCAD LT 2019 or AutoCAD LT 2020, the Drafting tool bar displays only the new Markup tool with new functionality. Drafting table is available on the Drafting tool bar. Selecting the icon opens the Drafting Table dialog. The Drafting Table dialog also has a link to the new AutoCAD LT 2019 and AutoCAD LT 2020 help. (video: 1:27 min.) Improved Precision Marking: In both AutoCAD and AutoCAD LT, now you can click and drag with the Precision Marking tool to make precision markings. Previously, you couldn't drag with this tool. Click the Precision Marking tool on the Drafting tool bar or select the tool from the Drafting tool bar's Marking menu. (video: 1:33 min.) Drawing Snap To: You can also turn on Snap To on the Drawing Snap To options. If Snap To is enabled, a new drawing tool icon appears in the drawing window. The icon has a dotted line to show that it's a new tool. If you select the dotted line, a menu opens with the options Show and Hide and Snap To On and Off. (video: 1:30 min.) Precision Pan and Zoom: Use the Precision Pan and Zoom tools to rotate and zoom images. (video: 1:33 min.) Display Improvements: AutoCAD has shown you the items you have selected in your drawing since you started working. You can select a different display option in the Options dialog. The Tools options dialog has a new Display tab, where you can choose whether to show annotations, when the commands are highlighted, whether to show commands that are currently executing, and how many displays show the drawing window.
