June 18, 2020, 6:12 pm. In the state of Massachusetts, there is a restriction: "It is forbidden to carry open or hidden folding knives, daggers, daggers, stilettos, ... On the basis of the current law, namely Art. No. 16a of the state constitution, the wearing of such items in public is prohibited. At the same time, if you fail to convince the judge that they are necessary for self-defense, the case may result in a fine and even imprisonment. In accordance with state legislation, the carrying of bladed weapons is prohibited for protection against any threats. All weapons must be in a case. At the same time, if the knife just lies in your pocket, this can be regarded as a threat.
