And if you are in a lead position, you will be able to direct the course of the matter to a more advantageous direction than if you where in a defensive one. This means that the actual positive positions of the company are more or less irrelevant for the decision of the upper management. But in order to be able to confirm your negative suspicions, it is worth comparing the real financial picture with the balance sheet which is supposed to show the reality. You must start with the expenses, you have to verify the numbers and you must look for some red flags such as a hiring income which was not disclosed on the schedule. But you also have to think of the costs which are not yet even incurred, but which will be incurred over the medium term and the costs of future acquisitions. With this overview, you have to consider the whole as a picture. You must analyze all aspects in order to be able to make a sound decision. And because it is impossible to actually see the truth behind the walls, you will have to apply your imagination and use the most comprehensive software which will reveal the truth. Find out if there are any irregularities at the expenditures, if there are any problems which can be detected through a software, or maybe some employees have been overpaid. Everything which was not disclosed on the schedule should have its own category in this software. Analyze the figures very carefully, you will find a lot of things which are not in accordance with reality. There are many red flags which are leading to a warning for the company. In order to keep your business competitive, in spite of the increasing costs, you must stay clear of the red flags. Just follow this manual and you will be able to make a good decision. Take the necessary steps and you will be able to make a beneficial business decision which
