trade-line. Washington is situated in the Southern region of the United States. It was formerly part of the New England region, as well as the Mississippi river valley. With the fall of the Mayflower and the capitulation of the English stronghold at Jamestown in 1622, Henry Hudson lands on the site that would eventually be named New Amsterdam. When the Dutch West India Company purchases the territory in 1626, it's the first step in what will become the Dutch Republic. The foundations of what will be New York City are laid. Fostered by its links to West-India, the city becomes a lively centre of trade and a diverse cultural and financial nexus. Now more than 500 years later, the city that would become New York is booming. A diverse city that teems with a unique cultural attitude. Few can hope to grasp the whole complexity of New York today, but all can tell its story. This selection of 14 films focuses on the area of New York. Key focus points with Go - Gecko Pilot feat. Skip Armstrong 02 Mar 2015 08:28:49 +0000>Monopoly with Go is a fun and relaxing online casino game. You will need to win the game if you are to succeed.

Gecko Pilot vs. Skip Armstrong, is what we call an "orgy of fun" on the (virtual) Monopoly board. Gecko Pilot has a tiny female hand holding a a tiny fist in the perfect shape for landing wicked Osprey's in her opponents face. A free-bounding gecko is beside her, awaiting the opportunity to spring and land for his prize. Skip Armstrong is a cad and a wretch, wearing an ill-fitting suit and doing his best to avoid the different little sassy offerings waiting to trap him on the wrong number. Trust me: both are pure fun. Whether your gaming experience is with a sweetheart or you have a gaming snob nearby, project produced by MBD, a cooperative in the creative industries. The project is based on the 400 year anniversary of the iconic Mayflower voyage, seeking to tell a story using VR as the platform for experience and narrative. The story narrates the decision of the 102 pilgrims to sail into the unknown, thus creating a character arc that unfolds over a journey lasting over 16 days, during which the communities' members have to constantly navigate their way through challenging terrain, weather conditions and isolation. The story starts in the waterways of southern England, where the race is on to achieve the greatest milestone of all: First sighting of land. The player's role is to become a member of one of the two communities, each with its own ambitions and risks, all while experiencing the real challenges of the natural world and their own inner souls. Mayflower Reflections – interactive narrative experience in VR – is available for free on the Oculus store and Google play store. Mayflower Reflections is a 360° immersion experience, and has an audio guide included for people who need the written word. Mayflower Reflections - Mayflower Reflections is a 360° VR experience featuring original music and an original score, layered with traditional folk songs and verses. The audio guide comes with the experience. It is a playable and fully functional 360° experience on the Oculus store and Google play store. (available for free) A little about Mayflower Reflections 52 wooden boards are the key to the story telling. Each board “stores” a person’s role on board the Mayflower. As the voyagers navigate the rough seas, they discuss the circumstances that led to the ship leaving England. Lead by a unified group of 102 Pilgrims, they navigate the English Channel in the summer of 1620, while facing storms, health issues, isolation and loneliness. As they find their way to the New World, the player is on board the Mayflower as one of the Pilgrims. The players interact with the boards to learn their roles on board the Mayflower, a

preparation. by Elizabeth Fowle TO MY HONORED HUSBAND GREETING Blessed be God that you are in health and Joy, with your two sons, and your fair and wealthy wife, who for my part is as well able to rejoice with you in your good (fortune) as I, who am not young, nor gay, nor ever behold such things. I pray God be with you, and send you all things (good) more abundant than your heart can desire. Amyas left us abridged by death as was reported to me, and the fair girl also departed, wherefore I have new comforted myself in his merry company, so that I now may be merry, and give to God praise, who can and will deliver me of troubles, if I will call him and fulfil my prayers and do well. Your wife sends to you her greeting, and (also) begs you to give her your son Godfrey (God Favour) and to (take) him to such a school as you shall appoint, for if this child grow to be such as you would fain have him in these days, then for (folly) and degeneration of time God help his purgation; so as he may mend in time and be profitable to you. I trust he will love you as his father, if I can help him and his advice. He is your child and it was for my own part I sent him. For I will have nothing of his parents, nor of his woeful companions, save (only) his natural affection to his father and mother; since it is an effect he hath of nature and not of the example (of) others. Your friend, E. F. She had later given birth to a daughter and regretted more in the after years over the children she lost, particularly the youngest one who died shortly after birth. Please note: This letter is fragmentary.
It is also my belief that it was written to a couple of men who were apprentices of the late Mayflower
