If you try to activate Windows now, you'll get an error message that says "Windows is not activated." I'm currently playing a game with this game, and I get logged in at TWiibabit ot, but the game says I'm not logged in. I think it has something to do with the host I'm using, because I did some research, and that is the only host that does this. I have tried disabling all activation, and activating with TweakNT, and everything is back to normal! But, I can't do that in-game. Could this be a problem with the host?
