Run ScriptMain.exe on the Command line Option Name: [url= `Re: Vsync[ur] Option Value: [url= `[email protected]` * Note: In the old Blue Screen System, the default path was C:\Windows\System32. To find this path, click Start, search for System32 and then right click on System32 and select Properties. * Note 2: If you are using a version of Windows that does not recognize the cmd.exe command, or if your permissions are not high enough, you will get an error message when running the ScriptMain.exe file. To fix this, you will need to follow the directions located on the ScriptMain.exe file.
